

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN FOLK-LORE SOCIETY.

THE Society met in Washington, D. C., conjointly with Section A, Anthropology, A. A. A. S., and the American Anthropological Association, during Convocation Week, on December 30 and 31, 1902, and January 1 and 2, 1903. For the three societies was arranged a common programme, in such manner that Tuesday, December 31, was given to the Section in Anthropology, Wednesday, January 1, to the American Anthropological Association, and Thursday, January 2, to the American Folk-Lore Society, while Friday, January 3, was made a joint session. At the same time met in Washington the American Association for the Advancement of Science and affiliated societies.

On Monday, December 29, at 10 A. M., addresses of welcome on behalf of the Washington Academy of Sciences and other scientific societies were delivered in the main building of Columbian University. On Monday afternoon, Vice-President Culin made an address before the Section of Anthropology, his subject being: "New World Contributions to Old World Culture." At 8 A. M. was delivered the address of the retiring President of A. A. A. S., Professor Asaph Hall, U. S. N.

On Tuesday, from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M., and from 2 to 5 P. M., Section H met at the Columbian University for the reading of papers.

On Wednesday, the American Anthropological Association met at the same hours. In the evening took place the annual dinner of the American Society of Naturalists and other affiliated societies, including the American Folk-Lore Society. The dinner was followed by the annual address of the President, Professor J. McK. Cattell.

On Thursday, January 2, the American Folk-Lore Society met for business at 10 A. M.

The Secretary presented the Report of the Council, including reports made to the Council by the Secretary and Treasurer.

The membership of the American Folk-Lore Society for the year 1902 was: Honorary members, 15; life members, 12; annual members, 325; libraries subscribing, 76; total, 428.

The publication of the Memoirs of the American Folk-Lore Society, suspended since 1899, will during the current year be resumed with volume viii., being a collection of Maryland Folk-Lore, made by the Baltimore Folk-Lore Society. It is hoped that the series may henceforth be maintained with an annual volume.

Herewith is represented, in substance, the Report of the Treasurer, from December 30, 1901, to December 27, 1902:—
