SUBSCRIPTIONS: Folklore Forum is published twice yearly by Folklore Publications Group, Inc. Subscription rates are $6.00 for students, $7.00 for individuals, and $8.00 for institutions (subscribers outside the USA add $2.00). Back issues are available on a limited basis for $3.00/single, or $5.00/double. Shipping and handling is $.75/issue or $2.00 for orders outside the USA.

MANUSCRIPTS: Folklore Forum publishes interdisciplinary articles on any aspect of folklore or folklife. Manuscripts which are based upon ethnographic fieldwork are especially encouraged. Articles submitted for publication should not exceed 30 double-spaced pages in length. Photographs are encouraged in articles dealing with material culture. All submissions should be made in duplicate and should include return postage. All submissions should conform to the American Folklore Society Style Guide (Journal of American Folklore Vol. 99, No. 391, 1986). Since manuscripts are refereed anonymously, the author's name should appear along with brief contributor information (not exceeding 50 words) on the title page only.

Book Reviews, Topics and Comments, and Translations of significant foreign articles are also encouraged. Open Forum functions as an arena for informal dialogue about issues within the discipline. Short, provocative, controversial essays will be published in this section. The editors will normally solicit responses to these essays in order to provide alternative perspectives.

An IBM-PC compatible 5 1/4" or 3 1/2" floppy diskette of submissions should also be included with the hard copy manuscript when possible, using WordPerfect or other ASCII (DOS text file) format software. Address all correspondence to:

JOURNAL OF FOLKLORE RESEARCH

The Journal of Folklore Research is dedicated to promoting international dialogue among scholars of folklore and related fields. It is an outlet for current, provocative research on theoretical perspectives and professional issues in folkloristics. The Journal of Folklore Research periodically publishes special issues on topics of interest to a broad range of scholars. These have included issues on African performance, feminist perspectives in folklore studies, the ideological uses of folklore, and the comparative method.
