

Unit Title: Let's Play with "Hyakki Yagyo Zu" (The Picture of Night Parade of One Hundred Demons)

Hisae Aoyama
Samba Elementary School, Onomich-City, Hiroshima, Japan

1. Grade Level: 6

2. Objectives

Students will:

- Actively express verbally and visually their personal ideas and emotions about Hyakki Yagyo Zu.
- Develop an idea to express inspired by Hyakki Yagyo Zu using design elements, such as shapes and colors, and composition elements, such as movement.
- Create a new version of Hyakki Yagyo Zu using design elements, such as shapes and colors, and composition elements, such as movement.
- Discuss ways of expression found in their own and others' works based on design elements, such as shapes and colors, and composition elements, such as movement.

3. Unit Plan (8 Class Periods)

Time	Learning Activities
Stage 1: Lesson 1	1. Observe and discuss Hyakki Yagyo Zu in the Kousanji Museum
Stage 2: Lessons 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6	1. Create original monsters based on the students' personal ideas and emotions (Lesson 2) 2. Design new versions of Hyakki Yagyo Zu with the theme "monsters enjoying the festival"(Lesson 3) 3. Create part of the new version of Hyakki Yagyo Zu in a group that devise ways of expression using shapes, colors, and movement (Lessons 4, 5, and 6)
Stage 3: Lesson 7	1. Discuss and appreciate the new version of Hyakki Yagyo Zu
Stage 4: Lesson 8	1. Observe and discuss Hyakki Yagyo Zu for a second time in the classroom and at the Kousanji Museum and share with others what is newly found about the work

4. Sample Lesson (Lesson 8)

4-1. Lesson Objective

- Students will discuss what is newly found about Hyakki Yagyo Zu after making a new version of the work.

4-2. Materials

Worksheets, pencils, a copy of Hyakki Yagyo Zu

4-3. Lesson Activities

Learning Activities	Teacher's Instruction and Support
1. Understand the Lesson objective <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand how to appreciate the artwork based on design elements and composition, such as shape, color, and movement 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Help students have a perspective on today's lesson in which they discuss what is newly found in Hyakki Yagyo Zu after making a new version  Objective: Let's discuss based on shape, color, and movement what is newly found about Hyakki Yagyo Zu!
2. Clarify what to discuss Hyakki Yagyo Zu 3. Exchange ideas and feelings with others <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exchange personal ideas and feelings with others about Hyakki Yagyo Zu based on design elements and composition 4. Sum up the lesson <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflect together on the things that the students learned in the lesson 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sum up what students learned about Hyakki Yagyo Zu in the previous lessons. • Help students observe and discuss ways of expression in Hyakki Yagyo Zu based on design elements and composition • Display a copy of the original Hyakki Yagyo Zu and a new version on the panels and walls so that students can effectively see them • Ask students to find excellent points about a new version of Hyakki Yagyo Zu • Have students compare and contrast the original Hyakki Yagyo Zu to a new version • Have students understand ideas and emotions expressed in Hyakki Ygyo Zu and the devices used to express them with design elements and composition • Have students think about how it is beneficial to discuss and create art with others to broaden and deepen one's way of expression