SUBSCRIPTIONS: Folklore Forum is published twice yearly by the Folklore Publications Group, Inc. Subscription rates are $10.00 for students, $15.00 for individuals, and $24.00 for institutions (subscribers outside the U.S.A. add $2.00; must be paid in U.S. currency). Back issues are available on a limited basis for $8.00/single, or $12.00/double. Shipping and handling is $3.00/first issue and $.75/each additional issue, or $3.50/issue for orders outside the U.S.A.

MANUSCRIPTS: Folklore Forum publishes interdisciplinary articles on any aspect of folklore or folklife according to the following submission guidelines. Scholarly Papers: Inter-disciplinary, academic research with a focused interpretation or analysis grounded in folkloric materials—verbal, nonverbal, or customary. Suggested length is under 10,000 words. Reflective Essays: Short essays rooted in the experience or practice of Folkloristics—fieldwork and collecting, educational application, or public sector. Suggested length is under 5,000 words. Collectanea: One or more items—textual and/or visual media—that present the materials of folklore. Excerpts considered. Open Forum: Brief and pertinent essays addressing topical or neglected issues in the discipline of folklore. Dialogue and debate. Suggested length is 3,000 words or less. Reviews: Reviews of recent books; periodicals; festivals; conferences; exhibits; film; and broadcast, electronic, and recorded media. Suggested length is 500 to 750 words. Review essays of multiple items will be considered—1,000 to 1,500 words. Essays that combine two or more of these general categories are strongly encouraged.

All submissions should conform to the Chicago Manual of Style using parenthetical citations. Since manuscripts are refereed anonymously, the author's name should appear along with brief contributor information (not exceeding fifty words) on the title page only. Submissions should include one hard copy and one electronic copy on a floppy diskette in either PC or Macintosh format.
