

AXION SEARCH

R.E. Pollock, R.E. Marrs, R. Heinz, and R. Crittenden

This experiment was approved in December 1977. Background studies have been undertaken and detector design calculations are in progress with regard to the establishment of an experimental upper bound to axion mass and yield by a search for coincident γ pairs with anomalous penetration through an IUCF 5 meter beam dump.