

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN
FOLK-LORE SOCIETY.

THE Society met in Philadelphia, Pa., conjointly with Section H, Anthropology, A. A. A. S., and the American Anthropological Association, during Convocation week, from December 27, 1904, to January 1, 1905. On Thursday, December 29, the societies met in joint session with the American Anthropological Society, and on Friday, December 30, with the American Folk-Lore Society. During the same week met the American Association for the Advancement of Science and affiliated societies.

The Council of the Society met at 12 M., December 30, in the rooms of the Museum of Science and Art.

At 2 P. M. the Society met for business, in the Museum.

The Secretary presented the Report of the Council, including reports made to the Council by the Secretary and Treasurer.

During the year 1904, publication of the series of Memoirs of the American Folk-Lore Society has been continued with Vol. VIII., being "Traditions of the Skidi Pawnee," collected and annotated by George A. Dorsey.

The number of members remains about the same; it is hoped that in the near future an increase may be effected, especially by the formation of local branches.

Herewith is presented, in substance, the Report of the Treasurer, from December 26, 1903, to December 27, 1904.
