

BIBLIOGRAPHIES AVAILABLE IN MANUSCRIPT FORM AT THE FOLKLORE INSTITUTE

[Those interested in obtaining copies of these bibliographies should write to the authors c/o the Folklore Institute, 714 East 8 Street, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, 47401. This list is not complete and it will be continued in later issues.]

1. Bird, Doanld.
Parapsychology and Psychical Research; A Partial Inventory.
2. Blaustein, Richard
A Folklore Bibliography of Interior New England.
3. Burns, Thomas A.
A Bibliographic Inventory of the Folklore of the State of Missouri.
4. Danielson, Larry
Norwegian and Swedish Imigrant Folklore in the United States: Studies, Primary Sources, and Secondary Sources.
A Preliminary Investigation of Sources for a Proposed Study of Folk, Popular, and Academic Medical Items in Peter Kalm's Travel Journal.
Scandinavian Folklore Studies in the Folklore Library of Indiana University. [A copy is filed in the Folklore Library]
5. De Caro, Frank
A Bibliography of American Proverbs.
Urban Joke Categories; A Bibliographic Survey.
6. Feather, Rebecca
Folklore and Customs of the Indians of the Andes.
7. Ivey, William
Cornish Folklore in the United States and Cornwall.
8. LaSota, Leo R:
A Partial Bibliography of Wedding Folklore in the United States.
9. Mitchell, Carol
A Partial Bibliography of Twentieth Century Witch Beliefs in the United States and England.
10. Moe, John
Migration Patterns of the Amish, A Bibliography.
11. Oring, Elliott
A Bibliography of the English Folk-Riddle.
12. Twining, Mary
A Bibliographic Survey of the Folklore of the American Negro, Two Decades: 1890-1900 and 1955-1965.
13. Yanagita, Yaeko
A Bibliography of Mermaids.