

Kitchen Racket, Céilí, and Pub Session: Traditional Irish Music in Boston, Massachusetts (Ann Morrison Spinney)

Supplementary material for pages from pages 54-86 in The Music of Multicultural America. Edited by Kip Lornell and Anne K. Rasmussen, 2016.

Please explore the following links for recordings related to this chapter. Excerpts from house parties of Cape Breton and Irish musicians, hosted by the Muise family in Dorchester and Roslindale, Massachusetts have been provided by the John Burns Library

The Irish Music Archives at the Burns Library has provided a link to excerpts from a performance at Boston College. The concerts feature performers such as Jimmy Noonan, flute; Ted Davis, guitar; and Dan Gurney, accordion.

Excerpts from performances at Boston College can be streamed online from the Burns Library Irish Music Center YouTube channel.

Figure 1: Musicians at the Green Briar Restaurant (Brighton, MA) jam session, spring 2014. Photo by Deb Carleton.