THANK YOU / MURAKOZE

This project could not have been successful without the contributions of many dedicated people and organizations.

From Indiana University, we want to thank the College of Arts & Sciences, the Global Village Living-Learning Center, the School of Education, IUSA Aid, the Center for Language Technology, Residential Programs & Services—Academic Programs, the Residence Hall Alumni Association, Dr. Beth Lewis Samuelson, Dr. Jeff Holdeman, Vera Marinova, Andrew Fak, and our Advisory Board members.

In Rwanda, we want to thank NKURIYINGOMA Clement, MUNYANEZA Simon Pierre, and CYUBAHIRO Abdu.

We also want to thank Harmony School and The Project School and their staff, with a special thanks to Matt Rosenthal, Lana Cruce, Jim Morrison, and Kalei Sabaratnam.

This project is especially grateful to Books & Beyond visionary, Nancy Uslan, for her ongoing support and for founding the Friends of Books & Beyond organization.

And most importantly, thank you to all the students from the Global Village Living-Learning Center, Kabwende Primary School, Harmony School, and The Project School who dedicated endless hours to making this project a reality.
