Pre-reading questions:

- What is your favorite food?
- What do you grow in a garden?
- Who do you ask when you need help with something?

One sunny afternoon, Trixie was in her kitchen. She was planning a fun dinner for her friends. Trixie was making a pizza for dinner.

Trixie looked at her recipe and realized that she did not have all the ingredients she needed. Trixie thought for a moment and realized she could get the ingredients from her garden! She looked out her window and knew that she would need some help from her friends to collect the vegetables.

Trixie called her friends on the phone.

Xavier said, “I’ll be right over.”

Mo-Mo said, “I’m on my way, Trixie.”

The trio got to work picking tomatoes, spinach, basil, and oregano. Then they went to the kitchen to make sauce from the tomatoes and herbs.

They rolled out the dough, spread the sauce, and sprinkled cheese over the sauce. They put some vegetables on top of everything. Then they put the pizza in the oven.

When they took the pizza out of the oven, it smelled delicious.

“I could not have done it without you,” Trixie said, and they all took big bites of the pizza.
