

The Tennyson material in this issue of THE INDIANA UNIVERSITY BOOKMAN will appear in the December supplement of VICTORIAN STUDIES (also an Indiana University journal). The editors are pleased to collaborate in the first publication to be sponsored by the recently organized Tennyson Society. Sir Charles Tennyson's essay appears appropriately in conjunction with the catalog of the Frederick Tennyson holdings of the Lilly Library compiled by Rowland L. Collins, editorial consultant to VICTORIAN STUDIES and member of the Publications Board of the Tennyson Society.
