

Instructions to Authors

Please send a double-spaced, single-sided printed manuscript to Paul Smith, Editor—Contemporary Legend, International Society for Contemporary Legend Research, Department of Folklore, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, Newfoundland A1C 5S7, Canada.

If possible, authors should include a copy of their submission on computer disc in Wordperfect 5.0, 5.1 and/or ASCII format. Guidelines for preparation of disc versions to be compatible with the typesetting system used are available from the publishers.

Authors should adhere to the Journal of American Folklore style sheet which is included in JAF 101 (1988):219–226.

Line illustrations should be provided in camera-ready form, sized for reproduction at either 100% or 50%. The maximum display area for figures is 116 × 186 mm (4.5 × 7.25 in.).

Proofs will be provided to the first or corresponding author of each paper. They should be corrected and returned as quickly as possible.

Offprints of articles may be ordered when returning proofs.

Submission of a paper to Contemporary Legend will be taken to imply that it contains original, unpublished work, not under consideration for publication elsewhere. By submitting a manuscript, the authors agree that the copyright for their article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. The copyright covers the exclusive rights to reproduce and distribute the article, including reprints, photographic reproductions, microfilm or any other reproductions of similar nature, and translations.
