

Instructions to Authors

Please send a double-spaced, single-sided printed manuscript to Cathy Preston, Editor—Contemporary Legend, International Society for Contemporary Legend Research, Department of English, Hellems 101, Campus Box 226, University of Colorado at Boulder, Boulder, CO 80309-0226 U.S.A.

If possible, authors should include a copy of their submission on computer disc in WordPerfect 5.0, 5.1 and/or ASCII format. Guidelines for preparation of disc versions to be compatible with the typesetting system used are available from the publishers.

Authors should adhere to the Journal of American Folklore style sheet which is included in JAF 101 (1988):219-226.

Line illustrations should be provided in camera-ready form, sized for reproduction at either 100% or 50%. The maximum display area for figures is 116 x 186 mm (4.5 x 7.25 in.).

Submission of a paper to Contemporary Legend will be taken to imply that it contains original, unpublished work, not under consideration for publication elsewhere. By submitting a manuscript, the authors agree that the copyright for their article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. The copyright covers the exclusive rights to reproduce and distribute the article, including reprints, photographic reproductions, microfilm or any other reproductions of similar nature, and translations.

Neither the Editor, the International Society for Contemporary Legend Research nor the Publisher accepts responsibility for the views expressed by individual contributors, or compilers of individual contributions, nor do they necessarily agree with the views presented.

Subscription rates

For information regarding current institutional subscriptions to Contemporary Legend, and personal subscriptions as part of membership of the International Society for Contemporary Legend Research, please contact Mark Glazer, College of Arts and Sciences, The University of Texas—Pan American, 1201 West University Drive, Edinburg, Texas 78539-2999 USA.