Requests for Papers in Indiana History

The Indiana Historical Society is calling for scholarly papers in Indiana or Midwestern history for its Annual History Conference on November 2 and 3, 1979. Last year there were sessions in political, economic, social, and military history with eight papers given by professional historians. The society would like to do even more at the November, 1979, meeting. Any historian wishing to present a paper at this meeting or to propose a session dealing with a midwestern history topic should submit proposals to the Indiana Historical Society before June 15, 1979. The address is: Indiana Historical Society, 315 West Ohio Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46202.
