Materials Concerning Eugene V. Debs Sought

The Eugene V. Debs Papers Project at Indiana State University is searching for material on Debs to be included in the publication of his complete works: his correspondence (including letters to and from Debs), his speeches, and his writings. The project, which is supported by a grant from the National Historical Publications and Records Commission and by Indiana State University, will publish Debs' entire works in a microform edition and selected correspondence in letterpress volumes. Anyone who has Debs papers, personal recollections, clippings, photographs, or other relevant material, or who would like to know more about the project, please write to J. Robert Constantine, Editor, Debs Papers Project, History Department, Indiana State University, Terre Haute, Indiana 47809.
