

INDIANA HISTORICAL SOCIETY
GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS IN HISTORY

Two Grants of $3,500 each for the 1983-1984 Academic Year

- Purpose: To encourage research which will contribute to an understanding of the history of Indiana or of Indiana and the region of which it is traditionally a part, the Old Northwest and Midwest.
- Eligibility: Applicants must be enrolled in a doctoral program in an accredited institution and have completed all course work and met all requirements for the doctoral degree except the research and writing of the dissertation. The dissertation subject must reflect the purpose of the grant and be approved by the graduate committee of the institution.
- Application: Application forms may be obtained from the office of the Indiana Historical Society at the address given below.
- Applicants must provide three letters of recommendation including one from the chairman of the applicant's major department and one from the dissertation director. Documents required in support are a transcript of graduate credits and a dissertation prospectus.
- Awards: Winners will receive grants of $3,500 to be used for expenses connected with their dissertations. One half of the grant ($1,750) will be paid September 1, 1983; one fourth ($875), December 1, 1983; and one fourth upon acceptance of the completed dissertation by the graduate committee.
- Deadlines: For receipt of applications            March 15, 1983
Announcements of awards                May 15, 1983

For further information and application forms write:

Gayle Thornbrough
Executive Secretary
Indiana Historical Society
315 West Ohio Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202