Wanted

We are sure that some of our readers can aid us to obtain the desired publications listed below. The Library of Indiana University and other libraries in different parts of the country are in need of copies of the issues mentioned in order to complete files. For older and rarer numbers, prices above the regular rates will be paid. Persons possessing any of the desired magazines or other publications, will confer a great favor by writing to Dr. R. C. Buley, Business Manager of the Indiana Magazines of History.

The Indianian. This magazine was published at Indianapolis from 1898 to 1906, six volumes in all. Wanted, a complete file. Partial sets will be considered.

Indiana, Past and Present. This little, temporary periodical was published during 1914. Wanted, a complete file, and also an extra copy of Number 1.

The Open Road. Wanted copies of this monthly for: March, April, May, June, July, August, September, and November, 1910; March, July, August, and September, 1911; April and May, 1912; July, 1913; January, 1914.

Bulletins of the Indiana Historical Commission. Numbers 16 and 18. These contain the Proceedings of the Southwestern Indiana Historical Society for 1922 and 1923.

Commencement Programs of Indiana University. Wanted to complete the file of the University Library the following, but duplicates of those listed and of any programs prior to 1900 will be accepted and valued: Programs of 1st to 19th commencements, 1828-1848; 22nd to 24th, 1851-1853; 26th to 28th, 1855-1857; 30th and 31st, 1859-1860; 33rd to 43rd, 1862-1872; 44th and 45th, 1873-1874; 47th, 1876; 50th and 51st, 1879-1880; 53rd, 1828; 55th and 56th, 1884-1885; 59th and 60th, 1887-1888; 62nd, 1891; 64th to 67th, 1893-1897.

Indiana Magazine of History. Wanted any issues from 1905-1912, inclusive, and issues of the numbers for March, 1913, and March 1914. Number 3 of volume I (September, 1905), number 4 of volume II (December, 1906), number 2 of volume IV (June, 1908), and number 1 of volume VI (March, 1910) are especially desired. There is also a desire for more copies of the following issues: December, 1921; March, 1922; double-number, June-September, 1925; March, 1926; December, 1926.

Full sets of the Magazine can be supplied to libraries or individuals who may desire to purchase only with great difficulty. A complete file from 1920 forward can be supplied at fifty-cents a copy or two dollars per volume, unbound; from 1914 to 1919, the price is one dollar per copy, or four dollars per volume; a file from 1905-1913, when it can be supplied at all, must be priced at a much higher figure.

General Index

A comprehensive General Index covering the first twenty-five volumes of the Indiana Magazine of History will be ready for the printer very near the time that this issue reaches subscribers. This Index should prove very useful. Copies will sell for one dollar each. It is expected that there will be orders from many libraries. A number of such orders have been received, which will be filled at the earliest possible moment, probably on or before April 30. Members of the Indiana Historical Society who wish copies of the Index should send in their orders. The price to members will be one dollar per copy, the same as to libraries. It is hoped that many members will desire to purchase copies. Send all orders direct to the Indiana Magazine of History, Indiana University, Bloomington.
