Wanted

We are sure that some of our readers can aid us to obtain the desired publications listed below. The Library of Indiana University and other libraries in different parts of the country are in need of copies of the issues mentioned in order to complete files. For older and rarer numbers, prices above the regular rates will be paid. Persons possessing any of the desired magazines or other publications, will confer a great favor by writing to the Indiana Magazine of History.

Indiana School Journal. Wanted vol. 37, numbers, 7-8 (1892); vol. 38, numbers 6, 9, 10, 11, 12 (1893); vol. 40, numbers 4, 9, 10, 11 (1895). Surely some veteran educator can furnish the missing numbers of this Journal, which are much desired.

National Educational Association, Proceedings. Wanted for 1860, 1864, 1872, 1884, and 1885.

Indiana Magazine of History. We have had a generous response to our appeals for back numbers, especially for those dated later than 1914. We have a serious need for copies of issues from 1905 to 1913. We very much desire to locate the four numbers of volume IV (1908); number one of volume VI (1910); the four numbers of volume VII (1911); the four numbers of vol. VIII (1912). We will buy also further copies of the following issues: Dec., 1921 and Mar., 1922.

Full sets of the Magazine can not be supplied to libraries or individuals who may desire to purchase. A complete file from 1920 forward can be supplied at fifty-cents a copy or two dollars per volume, unbound; from 1914 to 1919, the price is one dollar per copy, or four dollars per volume, except where certain numbers have become very scarce the price is a dollar and a half per copy, causing the price per volume to vary accordingly; single copies from 1905-1913, when they can be supplied at all, must be priced at a much higher figure.

Dr. George S. Gottman, the first editor of the Indiana Magazine of History, who now resides at Madison, Indiana, R.R. 5, has a complete file of the Magazine which he is willing to sell. The opportunity to purchase an unbroken file from the beginning is unusual. Anyone desiring to purchase should write directly to Mr. Cottman.
