

The article, "Jennings County in the Frontier Period", which appeared in our last issue (December, 1936), contained two errors which have been called to our attention. In the first line of page 378, the name Zenas Kimberlin should be Zenas Kimberly. We are indebted to Mrs. George W. Thornton of Indianapolis for this correction. On the same page, in the second line of the paragraph beginning, "In July, 1817", the name Chapman Denton should be Chapman Denslow. Mr. Hugh Th. Miller of Columbus, Indiana, wrote us in regard to this mistake. Both names were found, in old printed accounts by Miss Alice Bundy as spelled in her article, but evidently some one had blundered in regard to each. Miss Bundy is grateful for the correction in each case.

---

Contributors to this issue: Miss Mildred Stoler of Anderson, Indiana, is now a graduate student at Indiana University. Arthur Deen of Branchville, Indiana, is also a student in the Graduate School of Indiana University. Miss Elsie C. Sinclair lives in Indianapolis. Dr. Theodore C. Gronert is professor of history in Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Indiana. Miss Janice Rudd, a newspaper reporter, lives in Connersville, Indiana. Dr. Harvey Wish, who is an instructor in history in De Paul University, Chicago, was, for four months in 1936, Research Technician, for the Survey of Federal Archives in Illinois, Dr. Russell H. Anderson being Regional Director and William E. Austin Assistant Regional Director of the Survey in that state. Bertha Thomas (Mrs. William O.) Lynch lives in Bloomington, Indiana. Martha Tucker (Mrs. Harvey) Morris, editor of the Genealogical Section, lives in Salem, Indiana.