

Queries and Answers

Query 42: TRIBLE FAMILY

John Tribble, Sr., came to Ky. from Va. in 1824, and later entered land in the Vincennes District of Ind. He married Martha Medley of N. C. and Ky. Children: John, born, 1795; George, born, 1796; Elijah, born, 1798; Mary, born, 1800; Samuel, born, 1802; Lucy, born, 1805. There was another son, the fourth child, who became a minister. Samuel, married Hannah Brazelton. We are trying to trace the ancestry of the Tribble family back to the emigrant and any help will be appreciated.—M.R.E.

Query 43: BIERLY FAMILY

Jacob Bierly and wife Elizabeth (perhaps Elizabeth Frank) owned 322 acres in Rowan Co., N. C., on Pounders Fork, a branch of Abbott's Creek, as shown by record of Dec. 11, 1761. They had four sons: Jacob, Martin, Peter and David. Jacob was born in 1772 and died in 1846. He married Elizabeth Grimes, daughter of Gottlieb Grimes of Rowan Co., N. C., who died in 1846. Any information about this family will assist in completing the records being compiled by present members in Indiana.—Z.A.

Query 44: WISEMAN FAMILY

Isaac Wiseman married Mary Wilson about 1785 (possibly 1786 or 1787). They lived in Penn., perhaps in Cumberland Co., before the Revolutionary War. His will was probated in 1779 at Salisbury, N. C. Mary Wilson was born about 1770, but do not know her parentage. Her will was probated in 1791 at Salisbury, N. C. The father of Isaac Wiseman was Jacob Wiseman, Sr., whose wife's name was Elizabeth. He was a Revolutionary soldier. Maiden name of Elizabeth is wanted.—Z.A.

Query 45: WILLIAMS FAMILY

Fielding Williams lived in Madison, or New Madison, Ind., prior to 1850. He probably came from Va. Want any information known in regard to this Williams family, with dates, names and places of residence—L.L.D.

Query 46: COLE-BRADFORD FAMILY

John Cole (son of Jesse Cole) died in May, 1870. He married, about 1844, Rachel Bradford, daughter of Judge William Braford of Bloomfield, Ind., Greene County. The ancestry of John Cole and his wife Rachel Bradford Cole is wanted.—E.M.C.

Query 47: LIGHT-MOORE FAMILY

Tyce (Mathias) Light was born in S.C. on June 7, 1769. He was a son of Jacob Light, who died in Anderson Co., S.C. Tyce Light moved to Harrison Co., Ind., about 1807, and died there about 1826. He was married in S. C. to Mary Catherine Moore (born Feb. 12, 1774), a daughter of Hugh and Sarah Moore. She moved to Clay Co., Ind., to be with her children. She is buried in Franklin Twp. of that County. Dates of death and marriage of Tyce Light and his wife, Mary Catherine (Moore) Light wanted—L.D.P.

Query 48: INGRAM FAMILY

James Ingram lived in Jefferson Co., Saluda Twp., Ind. His will was probated in 1822. It names his wife Hannah and his son James. His daughters names were Elizabeth, Hannah, Jane, Polly, Nancy, and Lydia. His son James married Nancy Austin and served in the war of 1812. A James Ingram served in the Revolutionary War from Northampton Co., Va., but we can not determine from the record whether this man is the same James Ingram who came to Jefferson Co., Ind., or not. Any information to aid in proving the record will be appreciated.—M.H.

Query 49: ANDERSON FAMILY

John Anderson, son of Thomas Anderson settled in southern Ind. on the Ohio river. He followed "boating" between Cincinnati and New Orleans. He had three sons, and other younger children whose names are not known. Records state, however that he reared a large family. John is believed to have been born about 1770. His father, Thomas Anderson, and his family, except John, migrated to Fairfield Co., Ohio, from Va., perhaps from Hampshire Co. Thomas died in 1806 in Fairfield Co., Ohio. If any one in Indiana can identify this John Anderson and his family, it will help to solve many problem.—H.E.

Answer to Query 32 (June, 1937, p. 250, L.G.K.) The name Gwyn is also spelled Gwin. I have found a record of Robert Gwin of Va., died about 1840, who married Sarah Lockridge. His eldest son was named Joseph. Other children were: Andy, Samuel, Robert, Jane, Margaret, Mary and William. The family seems to be of Bath Co., Va. The Census of 1790, under Virginia, gives the family name spelled Gwyn, in Kingston Parish, Gloucester Co., Va. Two men named Robert Gwyn are listed. Others listed are: Hugh, James, John, Henry, Hugh, John, Jno, Harry and Humphrey. —Mrs. O. P. Goodwin, 418 E. Harrison St., Charleston, Ill.

Answer to Query 33 (June, 1937, p. 250, C.E.K.) Near Ashmore, Ill., on the farm of Edward Swartz, R. R. 2, near the County Farm, I am told is the grave of a Revolutionary soldier, William Barnes. The grave is marked by a concrete wall about a foot high but there is no other marking. This soldier had a son Enos, b. 1785. He married in Ind., Nancy Collett, of N.C. She died in 1855, aged 50 years. Enos came from Ky. to Ind. and then to Ill. He died in 1872 in Coles Co. A History of Coles Co., Ill. (1887), gives the children of Enos and Nancy (Collett) Barnes as follows. Rowann, m. L. F. Smith; Temple Ann, m. William S. Childress; Granville, m. Sarah Welsh; Milton W., m. (1) Mary S. Goodnight and (2) Martha Hoffman; Fountain H., m. Mary Sackett; Elizabeth, m. J. B. Zimmerman; Randolph, m. Louisa Ashmore; Emeline, m. Arthur Welsh; Huston M., d. in the Civil War. Huston Barnes was born near Ashmore, Ill., Aug 9, 1836.

Answer to Query 34 (June 1937, p. 251, E.M.C.) The William Cox of this query is believed to have been the father of William and John Cox. A William Cox and wife, Amy, were living in Newcastle County, Delaware, in 1719, as shown by deeds. "William Aubrey of London, Great Brittain, merchant, and Letitia, his wife, parties of the first part, Samuel Logan of Philadelphia, parties of the second part, and William Cocks of Newcastle County, Delaware, yeoman." (G. I. p. 115, 10 May, 1721, 300 acres) The deeds show that William Penn, granted the Manor of Henning on the south side of Brandywine Creek, said Manor being partly in Chester County, Penn., and partly in Newcastle County, Delaware, to his daughter Letitia Aubrey, wife of William Aubrey, and that it was part of this manor, that was conveyed to William Cocks, and was located in Newcastle County, Del. Another conveyance between the same parties for more land in the same manor was conveyed to William Cocks on July 10, 1721. John Cox, administrator of the estate of his father William Cox, deceased, conveyed to William Patterson, May 18, 1743, a portion of the Penn Tract. He produced the accounts of his administration and was discharged by the court. A deed (Feb. 19, 1734) shows that William Cox and his wife Amy, conveyed to William Cox, farmer, living near Hockessin in Mill Creek Hundred of Newcastle County, Delaware, land on Christiana Creek. William Cox, son of William and Amy, married Catherine Kankey. They were the parents of ten children. William Cox, his five sons, and two of his daughters, emigrated to North Carolina early in the seventeen fifties. (Descendants in Indiana, and other states).—Mrs. Emma M. Cox, Cathcart Apts., Indianapolis.

Answer to Query 29 (June, 1937, p. 250, L.D.P.) The Register of the Kentucky State Historical Society (January, 1932, XGX, 93-99) has an interesting article "The Collins' and Prewitts," by Emma Beard Nunnely. In this sketch the writer, states the Elisha Prewitt, my great-great-grandfather, Revolutionary soldier, married Tabitha Collins of Virginia, probably of Halifax County. The brothers of Tabitha Collins are given as follows: Joseph, Josiah, Stephen, Elijah, and Elisha. Josiah was born in Halifax Co., Va., on May 2, 1757. He and his brother came to Ky. before Oct. 1778. The children of Elisha and Tabitha (Collins) Prewitt were: Joseph who married Patsy Elliot on Dec. 19, 1796 (Shelby Co. Ky. records) Frances who married John Elliot on April 5, 1796 (Shelby Co., Ky.) Shelby who married Lucy Darnell on Feb. 6, 1823 (Woodford Co., Ky.); Lucy; Christiana; Elisha, Jr.; Tabitha, who married Stephen Waller on Dec. 14, 1788 (Shelby Co., Ky.); and Beverley, who married Martha Ann West (great-grandparents of Mrs. Nunnely). Josiah, Elisha and Stephen Collins, were among the first lot-owners of Lexington, Ky. This articles does not give parentage of this Collins family, but will help in securing data wanted. Collins, History of Kentucky (Richard H. Collins edition, two volumes), Vol. II, "Mason Co." "Gen. Richard Collins (son of Rev. John Collins, one of the most distinguished and eloquent pioneer ministers of M. E. Church in southern Ohio) was born in N. J. on June 3, 1797. He was liberally educated; died May 12, 1855, aged 58 years. Gen. Collins was married in 1823 to Mary Armstrong, whom he survived by 8 years."—M.T.M.