In 1930, The Indiana Magazine of History published a General Index for the first twenty-five volumes (1905-1929). The Index was compiled by Dorothy Riker of the Indiana Historical Bureau. Every library and every individual possessing a file of the Magazine for a period covered by the General Index, or for any considerable portion of the period, should have a copy. It is still possible to obtain copies at $1.00 each. Send orders to the Indiana Magazine of History, Bloomington, Indiana.

Reprints of any paper published in the Indiana Magazine of History may be obtained by any contributor. Estimates of the cost will be furnished on request and an order placed for as many reprints of any article as may be desired by the author. Requests should be made to the Editor before the issue containing the articles of which reprints are desired is published.
