

Query 125: Hume(s) Family

HUME(S). Thomas Hume, son of John and Mary (Barnett) Hume, b. Ap. 17, 1797, prob. in Harrisburg, Pa., d. Aug. 6, 1842, Pike Twp., Marion Co., Ind., m. betw. Ap 15 and 20, 1826, Washington Co., Ind., Elizabeth McCoy, dau. of Rev. James and Nancy (Lane) McCoy, b. Ap. 2, 1808, Clark Co., Ind., d. Oc. 8, 1844, Pike Twp., Marion Co., Ind. His will (1842) provided for the education of his children but did not name them. 1840 census shows an aged man (his father?) and 6 children in his household. The children were: a boy and a girl b. bef. 1830; 2 boys b. betw. 1830 & 1835; 2 boys b. betw. 1835 & 1840. Probably none of the children were of age at the death of their parents and were raised in homes of other relations. Information about them and their descendants wanted.

Query 126: Wilson Family

WILSON. Polly, Nancy and Isaac Wilson were named among the heirs of James McCoy, Washington Co., Ind., 1833, and Isaiah Hornaday appointed their guardian. The part allotted them in the settlement of McCoy's estate suggests that they were his grandchildren. No Wilson-McCoy marriage has been found in Washington Co. records, but 1830 census gives a clue. Jesse Wilson, betw. 30 & 40, lived in the vicinity of James McCoy, his household consisting of 2 girls betw. 5 & 10, one boy under 5. Perhaps Jesse Wilson m. a dau. of James McCoy; she d. betw. 1825 & 1830 and he betw. 1830 & 1833, leaving the three children to be raised by the McCoy grandparents. Evidence may be found in Washington Co. grave records or family Bibles. Further data on Polly, Nancy and Isaac Wilson wanted, also names of their descendants.
