CLARK COUNTY MARRIAGE RECORDS, 1807-1815¹

DOROTHY RIKER

Although Clark County was organized in 1801, the first dates in the marriage records are for 1807. Two earlier marriages, John Covert to Rachel Stootsman, September 9, 1802, and Robert Biggs to Ellanor Irwin, October 5, 1802, are recorded in Clark County Deed Records, 1:279, 320. During part of the period covered by the following records, the present Harrison, Jefferson, Scott, and Floyd counties were a part of Clark County. The residence of the person performing the marriage may provide a clue to the residence of the participants. Patrick Shields and Clement Nance were later residents of Harrison County; Samuel Smock, John Vawter, and John Ryker resided in that part of Clark which became Jefferson County.

In some cases the date given in the records is the date of the marriage license, while in other cases it is the date of the certificate or marriage returned to the county clerk. In the following list, the former is indicated by "L" and the latter by "C." The first pages of the marriage records are badly torn; some of the names are missing and others are almost illegible. For the first seven marriages, only the brides' names remain. These were:

Mary Carson [date torn]; Elizabeth Carr, L, 3-14-1807; Elizabeth Humphreys [date torn]; Elizabeth Gwin, C, 2-?-1807; [torn] Holland, L, 4-?-1807; Amy Speak, L, 5-22-1807; Mary Van devanter, L, 6-8-1807.

From here on the records are almost complete.
