

Wanted—County Histories

The Indiana University Library is attempting to add to its present holdings on Indiana History all of the Indiana county histories and atlases that have been published. If any of the readers of the Indiana Magazine of History have county histories or atlases which they desire to dispose of, please write Miss Irene Ryan, Indiana University Library, Bloomington, Indiana, giving the author and title of the volume and the price which they would expect to receive. We are particularly interested in the following:
