

Indiana Magazine of History

General Index
(XXVI-L, 1930-1954)

A General Index of the Indiana Magazine of History for the years 1930-1954, Volumes XXVI-L, has been published and is available for distribution. The new index is comprehensive and scholarly, making it an invaluable tool for students, authors, librarians, and teachers. It is about four hundred double-column pages in length.

The new index has been prepared by Elfrieda Lang, Assistant Curator of Manuscripts, Indiana University Library, who was formerly Assistant Editor of the Indiana Magazine of History. It covers all of the fourteen years during which John D. Barnhart was editor of the IMH, except for the early months of 1955, as well as nearly all of the years during which the late William O. Lynch edited the IMH.

The new index will be mailed to Indiana libraries which are regular subscribers of the IMH and will also be mailed to all such libraries which become subscribers during 1958 or 1959. This distribution is made possible through a subsidy provided by the Lilly Foundation. To other libraries and to individuals, the price of the index is $5 per volume. Indiana libraries wanting more than one copy may obtain them at this price. The index is printed on paper of good quality and bound with a tough paper binding.

Copies of the first General Index, covering the years from the founding of the IMH in 1905 through 1929, Volumes I-XXV, are available at $3 per copy (paper binding).

Orders and checks for either or both volumes should be mailed to Donald F. Carmony, Editor, Indiana Magazine of History, Room 48, Indiana University Library, Bloomington, Indiana. Both volumes, if ordered together, may be obtained for $7.50. Checks should accompany orders except for libraries which prefer to or must order through requisition. No discount from the published rates is available; neither the new General Index nor its predecessor is available through subscription agencies.
