

Information concerning Hoosier Regulators Desired

Professor Richard M. Brown, Department of History, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey, is making a study of American regulators and vigilantes. Dr. Brown would appreciate any sort of information about regulators, vigilantes, horse thief detective associations, bank protective associations, or similar organizations in Indiana from territorial times to the present.

Historical Materials about Wilbur F. Storey Desired

Justin E. Walsh, Hoosier Courts 15-1, Bloomington, Indiana, is anxious to locate any copies of the La Porte Herald, 1839 to April, 1841 and the Mishawaka Tocsin, March, 1841, to May, 1842. These weekly newspapers were edited by Wilbur F. Storey, the subject of Mr. Walsh's doctoral dissertation in history at Indiana University, and so far as is known no copies are extant. Also, any leads on information or papers of the Horatio Chapin family of South Bend would be appreciated since Horatio Chapin's first wife, Martha Storey Chapin, who died in 1846, was Wilbur F. Storey's sister.
