

Request for March Issues

Due to an unexpected increase in the membership of the Indiana Historical Society, the Indiana Magazine of History inventory for the March, 1966, issue is nearly exhausted. In anticipation of future requests for such copies from libraries and individuals, all subscribers who do not keep a file of issues are invited to donate their copies of the March, 1966, issue to the Editor, Indiana Magazine of History, Library 48, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana 47401.

Papers of Caleb B. Smith Desired

Richard J. Thomas, graduate student in history at Indiana University, is writing a political biography of the late Caleb B. Smith of Indiana. Smith served in the Indiana legislature during the 1830's and in Congress from 1843 to 1849. He was Lincoln's secretary of the interior from 1861 to 1863. Anecdotes, speeches, letters, newspaper clippings, diaries, genealogy, or any other information concerning Smith's public or private life are desired. Address all correspondence to Richard J. Thomas, 1117 Tulip Tree Apartments, Bloomington, Indiana 47401.

Papers of Thomas L. McKenney Desired

Herman J. Viola, graduate student in history at Indiana University, is writing a career biography of Thomas L. McKenney, superintendent of Indian trade and first head of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. Information on McKenney's personal life is especially desired. Address all correspondence to Herman J. Viola, Assistant Editor, Indiana Magazine of History, The Library, Room 48, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana 47401.
