

Subscriptions to Indiana Magazine of History

Subscriptions to the Indiana Magazine of History are available at $5.00 annually, and check or money orders therefor should be addressed to the Indiana Magazine of History, Library 48, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana 47401. Nevertheless, prospective subscribers are reminded that membership in the Indiana Historical Society automatically includes subscription to the Indiana Magazine of History as well as other publications and benefits. The categories of membership available in the society are as follows:

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP	$10.00 per year
SUSTAINING MEMBERSHIP	$25.00 per year
CONTRIBUTING MEMBERSHIP	$50.00 per year
LIFE MEMBERSHIP	$200.00

Persons desiring the magazine through society membership should send their checks or money orders to the Indiana Historical Society, Room 409, State Library and Historical Building, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204.

Both current and new subscribers who wish to make direct subscription to the Indiana Magazine of History for the year 1968 are encouraged to do so before February 1, 1968.

Papers of Claude Matthews Desired

Victor L. Fields, graduate student in speech at Indiana University, is writing an analysis of the rhetoric of the late Claude Matthews of Indiana. Matthews was secretary of state of Indiana from 1890 to 1892 and governor from 1893 to 1897. Matthews' name was placed in nomination for the presidency at the Democratic convention in 1896. Speeches, letters, newspaper clippings, or any other information on Matthews' public or private life are desired. Address all correspondence to Victor L. Fields, Speech Annex, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana 47401.