

Papers of George W. Julian Desired

John C. Hammerback, graduate student in speech and theatre at Indiana University, requests material on Indiana abolitionist George W. Julian, especially information concerning Julian's education and antislavery action to 1865. Address all correspondence to John C. Hammerback, Department of Speech and Theatre, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana 47401.

Papers of Waller Taylor Desired

Donald E. Baker, graduate student in history at Indiana University, is writing a paper on the career of Waller Taylor, judge of the Indiana Territorial General Court, 1806-1816, and United States Senator, 1816-1825. Taylor was a good friend of William Henry Harrison and served with the general at the Battle of Tippecanoe and during the Ohio Campaigns of 1813. He died in Lunenburg County, Virginia, in 1826. Letters, documents, or any other information on Taylor's public or private life are desired. Address all correspondence to Donald E. Baker, 515 E. First Street, Bloomington, Indiana 47401.

Books and Reading in Ohio and Indiana, 1800-1850

Michael H. Harris, graduate student in library science at Indiana University, is preparing a study of the importance of books and reading in Ohio and Indiana through 1850. Information on manuscript records of publishers, libraries, and letters of early settlers relating to books and reading are especially desired. Address all correspondence to Michael H. Harris, Graduate Library School, Education 24, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana 47401.