

Research Incentive Grant Report

by David K. Frasier, Herman B Wells Library, Indiana University, Bloomington

I used the InULA Research Incentive Grant of $300.00 to purchase usage and permissions fees for three photos from the Kenneth Anger Collection for my book Show Business Homicides: An Encyclopedia, 1908-2009. The photos are of murdered film director William Desmond Taylor and two “suspects” in the case, film stars Mary Miles Minter and Mabel Normand. The monograph is set to be published by McFarland in late December 2010 or early January 2011. Additional information about the forthcoming book is available here: www.mcfarlandpub.com/book-2.php?id=978-0-7864-4422-9 .
