

2006 December Luncheon

Date: Friday, December 15, 2006

Time: Noon to 2:00 pm

Location: The Tudor Room, Indiana Memorial Union, Indiana University-Bloomington

Program: The Fern and the Banana Peel-- a presentation by Moira Smith

Moira Smith is the librarian for Anthropology, Folklore, Sociology & Social Work on the IUB campus. She will discuss her sabbatical experiences as a resident scholar at the Stout Research Centre at the Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand. Among other things Moira will try to answer 2 questions: first, why study practical jokes; and second, why study them in New Zealand?

Cost: $11

Please R.S.V.P. by December 5 using the online form at: www.indiana.edu/~libugls/inula_rsvp.html

To pay in advance mail your check to:

Jo McClamroch

Electronic Resources Acquisitions Librarian

Acquisitions: Electronic Resources Acquisitions Section

Herman B Wells Library E350 IUB

You may also bring your check and pay the day of the luncheon.

Maps and Directions for the Indiana Memorial Union are online at: http://www.indiana.edu/~imupromo/about_the_union/drive_direct.shtml