

Presentations at the International Association of Music Libraries

PHILIP PONELLA
Director, William and Gayle Cook Music Library
Indiana University Bloomington

From July 30th to August 4th the International Association of Music Libraries held its annual congress at the University of Cambridge in the UK. Several presentations were given by current IU Libraries faculty and staff as well as alumni of the Luddy School's Department of Information and Library Science's Music Specialization Program.

The presenters and their presentation were:

- Philip Ponella (William and Gayle Cook Music Library) and Anthony Tadey (IU Jacobs School of Music)

Preservation of, access to, and pedagogy with digital audio and video at Indiana University's William and Gayle Cook Music Library

- Kimmy Szeto (Baruch College, City University of New York) and Charles W. Peters (William and Gayle Cook Music Library)

Discoveries from Thomas Binkley Collection at the Cook Music Library at Indiana University, United States, towards the reconstruction of the history of Studio der frühen Musik

- Charles W. Peters (William and Gayle Cook Music Library) and Carla Williams (Formerly Head of Public Services, William and Gayle Cook Music Library and IU MLS alumna, currently Music Librarian at Ohio University, Athens, Ohio)

Music open educational resources in IAML member libraries: discovering new sources, evaluating materials, and providing access

- Laikin Dantchenko (Morris) (William and Gayle Cook Music Library)

Войны Для Воинов: the Far-reaching poetics of 1980's Soviet punk music and political dissent in the Lavrov Collection at Indiana University Cook Music Library

- Misti Shaw (William and Gayle Cook Music Library) and Zoua Sylvia Yang (DePauw University, Greencastle, IN)

Does using a BEAM approach in library instruction improve student outcomes?

- Matthew Vest (Formerly Circulation Assistant, William and Gayle Cook Music Library, IU MLS Alum, now Music Librarian at the University of California, Los Angeles) and Callie Holmes (University of California, Los Angeles)

Advancing music collection management

- Jeff Lyon (IU MLS Alumnus, currently Music Librarian at Brigham Young University, Provo) and Brent Yorgason (IU PhD and MM, IU Jacobs School of Music, currently Associate Professor of Music Theory, Brigham Young University, Provo)

British music in Hollywood: borrowed British themes in Max Steiner's film scores

- Joe Clark (Kent State University) and Jessica Abbazio (IU MLS Alumna, currently Music Librarian at the University of Minnesota)

Poster session: Collections, curriculum, and COVID: teaching and learning music at US universities in 2022