

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

New Views on Gender is a student publication that focuses on the ever changing and evolving spectrum of gender and sexuality. I am grateful to all of the students that submitted their writings to this publication, I have learned so much from reading all of your pieces. I am grateful for the opportunity to share your stories and research with a wider audience so they too can expand their understanding of gender and sexuality.

I would like to thank Dr. Christina Gerken for giving me this opportunity and for all of her help, encouragement, and support. Thank you to Craig Finlay and the rest of the publishing faculty, as well as my wonderful editors Adam Schelle, Chris Crawford, and Stacie Balentine. Thank you to April Lidinsky and everyone involved in the Women and Gender Studies Department, I am honored to know and work with such intelligent, driven, welcoming, loving, and supportive people.

On a more personal note I would like to thank my partners Joseph Dewitt and Kaitrin Higbee for their help and support and a special thanks to Kaitrin for designing the cover.

Finally, I want to thank the WGS Lounge for being my crazy and fantastic home away from home, and where I spent long hours working on this publication.
