

The Undergraduate Research Journal strives to recognize IU South Bend undergraduates for their scholarly accomplishments, to stimulate their future academic endeavors, and to provide an opportunity for them to present their original research in a multidisciplinary, refereed journal.

This journal showcases the best of IU South Bend's research writing as evaluated by the authors' peers.