Note from the Editor

This was my first year as Editor-in-Chief for the Undergraduate Research Journal of History so I did not know what to expect, but I simply I wish to express a warm thank-you to all who were involved in making this project a success. This year's editorial board included Kaitlin Mann, Philip Melin, Zach Snider, and Jen Kucharski. Of course, Professor Tom Murphy's guidance and advice was invaluable in putting together this year's journal submission and organizing the editing process. None of this would be at all possible without him. I also want to thank all those who submitted this year as undergraduate research is a foundational component of what makes IUSB a successful institution. By simply picking this journal up and reading it, you are supporting someone who is likely published for the first time. Again, thank you to everyone who was involved in this process; I look forward to working with many of you again in the future.
