

In 1987, Betty Greenleaf stated, “if every graduate contributed $10 annually, we would make it.” We are happy to announce that the graduating master’s cohort has taken Betty’s challenge one-step further. This year, the master’s cohort supported the HESA alumni fund by continuing the HESA Class Gift Campaign, which was inaugurated by the 2013 master’s cohort. In recognition of their contribution, the IUSPA journal would like to recognize the donors.

Gifts received that are not designated for a specific area will be credited to an unrestricted fund. The Indiana University Foundation is the designated fundraising agency for Indiana University. A small portion of funds and/or income therefrom may be used to defray direct costs of raising funds. You may support IU/IUF via a donor advised fund and/or private foundation, but under IRS regulations, you cannot satisfy an outstanding pledge through either type of vehicle.

Tax Advantages

Gifts to Indiana University are deductible as charitable contributions within the limits of the Internal Revenue Code. Indiana taxpayers are eligible for a 50 percent tax credit for gifts up to $400 on joint returns, or $200 on individual returns.
