Dear Dr. Karpenko,

The IRB determined that your proposed study titled, "Thinking as a student: Stimulating peer education in the humanities," is not human subjects research and does not require IRB review because the data was collected anonymously for purposes other than research. Thank you for contacting the IRB to ensure that your study was reviewed appropriately. No further interaction about this project is necessary for this project.

Please contact Jennifer Jost, administrative assistant grants and research/IRB, if you have any questions regarding this approval process or if you make any significant changes in with regard to the human subjects involved in your research. Please print a copy of this letter for your records. If you need an original signed copy of this letter on Carroll University letterhead, please contact Jennifer Jost by e-mail at irb@carrollu.edu citing your proposal number in your email.

Best wishes on your research.

Sincerely,

Dr. David Bazett-Jones, PhD
Chair, Institutional Review Board
