

Annual Meeting of the Société Rencesvals
American-Canadian Branch
December 27, 1974

Each year in conjunction with the Modern Language Association Convention, the Société Rencesvals, American-Canadian Branch, holds its annual meeting at the seminar it organizes and sponsors, devoted to "Problems in the Medieval Romance Epic." The meeting, open to both non-members and members of the Society, will take place this year on Friday, December 27, from 4:00 to 5:15 p.m., in the Buckingham A Suite of the Americana Hotel, New York City. Discussion will center on three papers to be published in the next issue of Olifant: "Narrative Style in Spanish and South Slavic Traditional Narrative Poetry: Implications for the Study of the Romance Epic," by John S. Miletich, Indiana State University; "More about the Unity of the Chanson de Roland," by Guy R. Mermier, University of Michigan; "Huon de Bordeaux: An Examination of Generative Forces in Late Epic Diction," by Kenneth C. Mealy, University of Pennsylvania.

Attendance at this seminar is limited, in accordance with MLA regulations, to the first thirty-five persons who write in advance to the chairman for this year, Rupert T. Pickens, Department of French, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY 40506.
