

"Puis li livret le bastun e le bref ..."

This issue of Olifant is the last to be published by the University of Manitoba. Subsequent issues of the journal will be published by William W. Kibler, at the University of Texas.

The editor of this issue would like to take this opportunity to thank those of you who have subscribed to and contributed to the success of Olifant during the past decade and more. All of those connected with the production of this journal have been very pleased with the manner in which Olifant has grown in prestige and in circulation throughout its birth and development.

An especially warm thanks is also due to Professor William W. Kibler, who has accepted to take over the editorship of the journal. Under his direction, the journal will surely prosper even more. Few persons in our discipline are as industrious, enthusiastic, and knowledgeable as he, and we are fortunate that he was and is willing to devote that energy and talent to Olifant.
