

Have You Heard the News? From the Field

Taking our title from founding editor Bill Buckley's poem of the same name published in Volume 1 of Plath Profiles, our "News from the Field" section collects special announcements and recaps from the field of Plath studies, as well as the "news in brief" below.

-

The Sylvia Plath Literary Festival is ran 21-23 October in Hebden Bridge! Cheers to everyone meeting to celebrate Sylvia's legacy. plathfest.co.uk/

Heather Clark, author of Red Comet: The Short Life and Blazing Art of Sylvia Plath (2020), recently announced via Tweet that she is contracted with Knopf to write a biography of poet Anne Sexton. Red Comet was a finalist for the 2021 Pulitzer Prize, a New York Times Top Ten Book of the Year, and was lauded in reviews, including Plath Profiles Volume 13. Many congratulations, Heather!

-

"Have you heard the news?
The sea still burns."

-W.K. Buckley

-

Please submit your own news for inclusion in the next volume to our online submissions manager! scholarworks.iu.edu/journals/index.php/plath/about/submissions