

Troublous Wringing of Hands (Ocean) & Out of the Shoe and into the Cauldron

Kristina Zimbakova

Troublous Wringing of Hands (Ocean). Mixed media on canvas (acrylic, cultivated fungus, pastel), 62 x 38 cm, 2009. Note: in Chinese culture, the fungus Ganoderma lucidum is a symbol of longevity and immortality.

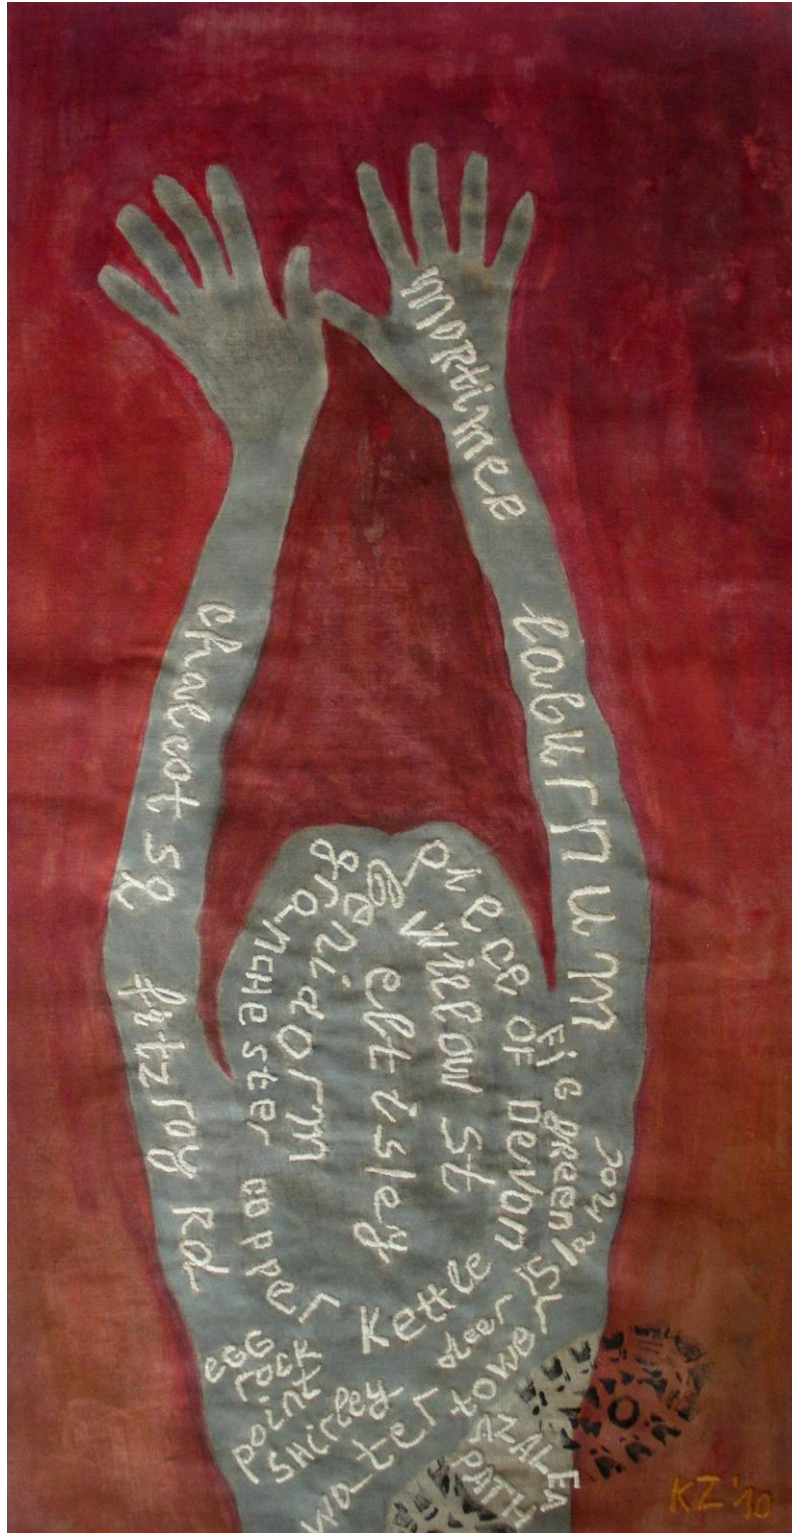

Troublous Wringing of Hands (Ocean), in the glazed frame.

*We recommend viewing the images at 200 %.

Out of the Shoe and into the Cauldron.
Mixed media on canvas (acrylic, glue, embroidery), 109.5 x 56 cm, 2010.

Acknowledgements

A great debt of gratitude is owed to Dr Amanda Golden from Emory University for her inspirational photographs of Plath-related places, which have prompted some of the ideas for the works. Thanks are also due to Prof. Linda Adele Goodine from Indiana University and to Prof. Mitko Karadelev from Ss Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje for assistance given in the creation of the paintings, with or without knowledge.
