The Hoosier Science Teacher is looking for volunteers to serve on the Publications Committee. If you are interested, please email thst@hasti.org

Do you have an image to contribute for a THST cover?

The editors invite readers to submit cover images - photos or artwork are accepted. Image must be submitted in .jpg format, with a resolution at least 140 dpi. Larger dimensions are better.

You can use the Submission Page to upload your cover image, and the editors will select images for future covers. All photos used for the covers are credited to the owners.
